LOCATION:	Centre for Health & Safety Innovation (5110 Creekbank Road, Mississauga)
FEE:	$395 + HST

Repairing a damaged workplace culture can be challenging when negative attitudes and behaviours are deeply ingrained. This session will focus on the steps employers should take to create a positive and respectful workplace when there has been workplace bullying.

This is a practical, hands-on session that makes the issues interesting, though provoking and fun. The format includes large and small group discussion, quizzes and case studies. Participants will receive comprehensive handouts including reference materials and guidelines.

Who should attend: HR professionals
