

Developing Future Talent

One of the keys to any business's success is to ensure your talent is ready to move into key positions when an opportunity presents itself. Managing the succession of talent is a vital strategic process that helps to minimize gaps in leadership, ensures the continuity of knowledge and enables your talent to develop the skills necessary for future roles.

This workshop will show you how to design and implement a succession plan that will help your organization to continue to grow and achieve its business plan.

This half-day program will focus on:

- What is succession planning?
- Why is succession planning important?
- Market trends
- Best practices in succession planning
- Tools for succession planning – the 9-box
- HR's role in planning
- Keys to success
